

Mount Horeb Area Arts Association

Join the Mount Horeb Area Arts Association

Mount Horeb Area Arts Association is a non-profit 501(c)(3) community and member supported organization. Membership is open to all those interested in fostering the arts in individuals and our communities, encouraging public awareness of the arts, and participating in the many other organizational activities. MHAAA produces the Annual Spring Art Tour and sponsors an annual High School Student Art Scholarship. Eligible student applicants attend high schools within the Spring Art Tour area; which extends North to Sauk City and Prairie du Sac, West to Ridgeway, East to West Middleton/Verona, and South to Blanchardville and New Glarus.

Other activities of MHAAA include:

- Member group exhibitions.
- Annual fund-raising events.
- Pot-luck parties and Mount Horeb Chamber socials.
- Quarterly membership and business meetings.

Benefits of MHAAA membership:

- MHAAA website listing with a link to your website and/or social media pages.
- Quarterly meetings; may include critiques, demonstrations, field trips, socials, pot-lucks, and other events.
- Opportunities to participate in exhibitions and to apply for the Spring Art Tour.
- Meet and network with other artists, art supporters, and community leaders; to exchange ideas that further develop artistic enjoyment and skills, understanding and awareness.
- Facebook communication and expanded social media connections.
- Opportunities to make a difference by volunteering on committees.
- MHAAA membership in the Mount Horeb Area Chamber of Commerce, which includes networking opportunities for you in the greater Mount Horeb area business community.
